

The Daily Waste

June 2, 2004

An October 2000 report indicated the U.S. Department of Agriculture Inspector General, in conjunction with law enforcement agencies, found a total of 6,733 fugitives that may have been illegally receiving food stamp benefits.

Among these fugitives were 1,550 wanted for drug/narcotic offenses, 31 for homicide, 45 for forcible sex offenses (including rape and child molestation), 14 for kidnapping, 380 for assault, and 208 for robbery.

And the Democrats want to raise your taxes to pay for more of this?
